Consent for Use of Photograph

Effective August 1, 2006, St. Paul the Apostle School may provide photographs of students on the St. Paul website, for promotional material, and / or media coverage. It is standard operating procedure at St. Paul School not to include last names of students when publishing information and photographs of students. If you do not want your child(ren)'s photographs used for these purposes, please request a form from the school office before September 15.

I understand the information above and grant permission for my child(ren) to be photographed.
